

I oppose the recent petition by the Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) which challenges Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. It is an effective and very helpful law and I do not want to see it weakened in any way.